What makes Rakesh Paul crorepati

AT News · 06:54, 18 Oct 2015 · 17147 views · 2 min read

Within a short spell of time Rakesh Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168) has amassed properties worth crores of rupees. This was what the vigilance department report informed the Gauhati High Court. The report listed the properties Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168) procured after he took over (/taxonomy/term/2166) the APSC chairman a few years back.

Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168), who currently resides at his own house the in Bhangagarh area in Guwahati has owned flat in the Mandakini Apartment in Kalapahar area. In the same city (/taxonomy/term/1957) of Guwahati, he owns a commercial complex at Dakhingaon near Krishna (/taxonomy/term/95) Mandir. The APSC chairman has procured two flats in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868)'s South Extension are and in Gurgaon (/taxonomy/term/2174).

He further procured a flat in Srimantapur area in Bhangagarh. But he did it in the name of his wife Sunanda Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168) who is the owner of two cars. Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168) also owns property in the name of his brother Rajib. Rajib procured a flat at Janakpur area in Kahilipara apart from a furnished office in Bhangagarh.

Least not but the last, his driver (/taxonomy/term/2388) Sanjay Saha also is the owner of a well-furnished two-storeyed building. Situated on a plot of 3 kathas in Lalganesh he constructed the building four years ago. This is apart from another one bigha plot of land at Sonapur.

Vigilance and Anti-Corruption (/taxonomy/term/58) Mukul Saikia who has been preparing the property list submitted before the high court acting on bribery complaint against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the APSC chairman. But initially Saikia was transferred before completing his task. But the high court restored him and asked him to proceed who has submitted the list.
