Many stunning revelations are believed to have surfaced during the custodial interrogation of APSC chairman Rakesh Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168) whom police arrested two days back in Dibrugarh.

According to sources, Paul (/taxonomy/term/2168) is learnt to have confession his closed association with a circle of Congress (/taxonomy/term/90), BJP, AGP and student (/taxonomy/term/2404) leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) whom he favoured on many occasions.

“The revelations are very sensitive and sensational who can’t be revealed now. It would take time to ascertain the charges against (/taxonomy/term/1929) him. But it has come to light beyond doubt (/taxonomy/term/2213) that he presided over (/taxonomy/term/2166) a regime of corruption in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) public service commission,” said sources.
