

WIPRO recruits 37 Gauhati University students

Comments 0

pbaruah 29 August 2007 11751 views

GUWAHATI: Gauhati University has every reason to feel proud of its products as Wipro BPO picked up altogether 37 youths from Assam in its joint campus interview on Tuesday.

According to information received, the IT major will provide training to all these candidates soon.

The recruitment started in the morning at the university premises and hundreds of applicants underwent a rigorous Wipro BPO selection process. At the end of it, Thirty seven bright youngsters were selected by the world-class brand who would able to take the first step towards a highly rewarding career.

Wipro BPO Academy will admits those who managed to get selected to a 10 day training.

In his address, V Anand Kumar, Vice President – People Supply Chain & Employee Branding of Wipro BPO, said they had an $8 billion industry in India and growing at a 40% a year. “We aim at spreading the message to make people aware of this huge career opportunities,” he said.

In his address, Gauhati University Vice Chancellor, Dr Amarjyoti

Choudhury, stressed on a joint effort by both academia and the corporate world for benefit of the people.

Notably, in October this year, Wipro BPO is schedule to re-visit the varsity campus to offer placement opportunities to the final year students of graduate and post-graduate courses.

pbaruah

BY PBARUAH

Gogoi comes up with steps to check infiltration

Dreaded ULFA leader apprehended

AAKRSU activists arrested; 1000 kamatapur bandh on Sunday

Rabha Hasongs withdraws strike

Rajdhani Blast: NSG to assist probe

ON THIS DAY

Justice Ajay Lamba sworn in as Chief Justice of the Gauhati High Court

Players feted

Musician Kishor Giri passes away

United Bank of India officials march against bad loans at Daboka

Deplorable power supply situation in Silchar
