To mark the World No Tobacco Day, the Raha college Internal Quality Assessment Cell (IQAS) on Friday took out an awareness rally at Raha where a good number of students of the college took part in. The procession by the students passed through various areas of the town shouting slogans against the uses of tobacco and the effects of the consumption of tobacco. The students called on all to quit the habit of consuming tobacco, be it any form. The rally was flagged off by the principal of the college Dr. Bed Kumar Chaliha, and addressed by Diptee Devi, vice-principal of the college.
