YouthNet in association with Eclectic Publications is organising the 3rd edition of the Young Leaders Connect, on November 22 at Guwahati Medical College Auditorium. This daylong conference is conceived by Youth Net (a Nagaland based non-profit organisation for facilitating youth leadership) and Eclectic is associating as forum partner to bring about Young Leaders Connect to Guwahati. This was disclosed at a press conference held on Monday at Guwahati. The meeting was attended by chairman of the conclave Bhaichung Bhutia, Co-chair Gaurav Gogoi along with Hekani Jakhalu, Director YouthNet and Tanushree Hazarika, Managing Director, Eclectic Group. The Theme for this year "Branding Northeast: speaking for ourselves" will develop a positive outlook about the region that looks beyond media reports of conflict to the untapped potential that the region holds in terms of cultural heritage, natural resources, and human capital. The one-day conference will cover panel discussion and cultural events.
