Guwahati: There is another case when a youth has landed behind bars in enjoying night life in Guwahati. Dibyajyoti Neog, a young married businessman entered a city hotel at 11.30 pm on Wednesday with his girlfriend, Tribeni Patir, a college student who stays in a girls hostel. They spent around two hours there post which a fierce quarrel broke out between them. Neog slapped, abused and threw a split burner at her. The ruckus created alerted the hotel staff who tried to intervene but they were also not spared. The Manager was manhandled and Neog broke several window panes and utensils as well shouting abuses all throughout. The Hotel authorities then had to call the police who came and detained them. On Thursday the girl filed a FIR in Dispur Police Station against Neog under section 354/325/307 of the Indian Penal Code. Subsequently, he has been booked and the girl has been released.
