The first Guwahati Home Fair 2007, organized by the Assam Real Estate and Infrastructure Developers Association (AREIDA), will be under way from December 24 next at the State Veterinary College ground at Khanapara in the city. The event is being managed by Epitome Communications.

AREIDA, the apex body of the builders and promoters of real estate in Assam, has conceptualized the Home fair, the first of its kind in this part of the country, for the entire gamut of people engaged in the booming real estate business in the Northeast.

The fair is aimed at three different groups of people – who already own a house but is looking for a makeover, who wants to purchase a flat, and who wants to construct his/her own house.
